

Twilight Package

Celebrate in style at Junior King's School, a stunning and historic venue sitting on the banks of the River Stour within eighty acres of beautiful Kent countryside. This hidden gem of a venue offers couples the perfect "Garden of England" backdrop for your special day.

Arrive through the main gates and follow the drive towards the 16th century Manor House with 'secret' garden and orchards. The Tithe barn sits proudly on the manicured lawn and is one of the oldest buildings on the Junior King's site, dating as far back as 1580.

Whether you are looking for stunning landscaped gardens and orchards perfect for a marquee or outdoor celebration or an indoor function in our Dining Hall seating 120 guests, we can tailor the perfect package for you. Our new Kipling Garden Package offers a unique vintage afternoon tea wedding reception option. This package can be booked with our Twilight package to extend your celebrations into the evening.

120 guests, from 5pm - 11pm
